

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES, GTU ORGANIZED
AICTE-GTU SPONSORED ONLINE FDP
ON
“NBA ACCREDITATION FOR MANAGEMENT INSTITUTIONS”
FROM 15TH MARCH, 2021 TO 20TH MARCH, 2021

Graduate School of Management Studies organized an FDP on “NBA Accreditation for Management Institutions” jointly sponsored by AICTE & GTU from 15th March, 2021 – 20th March, 2021. Due to the prevailing COVID-19 pandemic situation, the FDP was organized in an online mode.

The Inauguration ceremony was held on the first day i.e. 15th March, 2021. Dr. Radhika Gandhi (Assistant Professor, GSMS-GTU & FDP Co-Coordinator) extended greetings to all the dignitaries and the participants registered for this FDP. As a part of our tradition, GTU song was played to pay a tribute to our University. Dr. Pankajray Patel (Director, GSMS-GTU) threw light on the purpose of conducting FDP on NBA Accreditation for Management Institutions and then followed the Inaugural Address by Dr. K. N. Kher (Registrar – GTU) through which an awareness was created on the Importance of Outcome Based Education being it a need of the hour. Dr. Keshav Sharma (Dean – The Business School, University of Jammu), who was the Chief Guest for the Inaugural Ceremony of the event delivered a key note Address on the FDP Topic wherein he conveyed that Accreditation process is very difficult for Management Institutions due to the very nature of the subject itself. He enlightened everyone with the philosophy of Management so beautifully relating it to various disciplines and suggested to focus on two parameters i.e. stakeholders & quality. The inaugural session ended with a Vote of Thanks by Dr. Shweta Bambuwala (Assistant Professor, GSMS-GTU & FDP Coordinator).

Prof. V. Gopal (Professor of Finance and Accounting – IIM Trichy) delivered the session on Importance of Outcome Based Education and Bloom Taxonomy for Management Education in the pre-lunch session and the post-lunch session on Outcome Based Education Framework & its Components (Vision, Mission Formulations) was conveyed by Dr. Pankajray Patel (Director, GSMS-GTU).

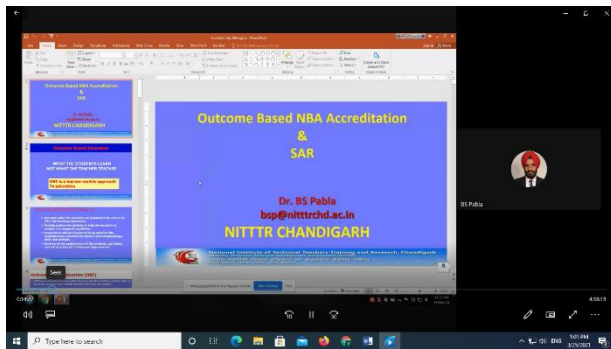

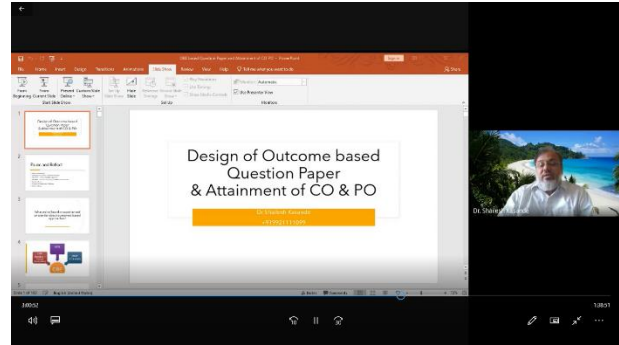

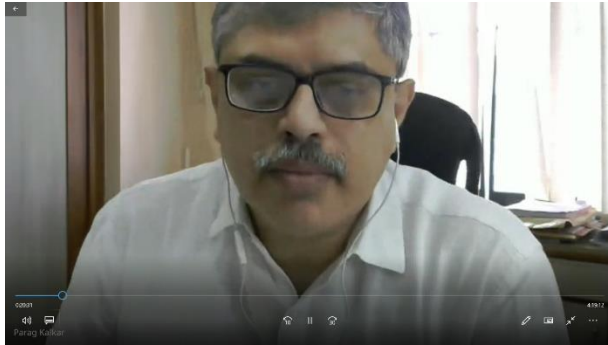

Dr. Maya Salimath (Director Quality Assurance Cell, R. R. Institution, Bangalore) enlightened the participants with Outcome-based Education Framework & its Components (PEO, PSO, PO, CO) on the 2nd day.

On the 3rd day, participants had an enriching experience on Mapping Outcomes, Assessment and Rubrics by our expert V. K. Srirama (Associate Professor, Dayananda Sagar Academy of Technology and Management, Bangalore).

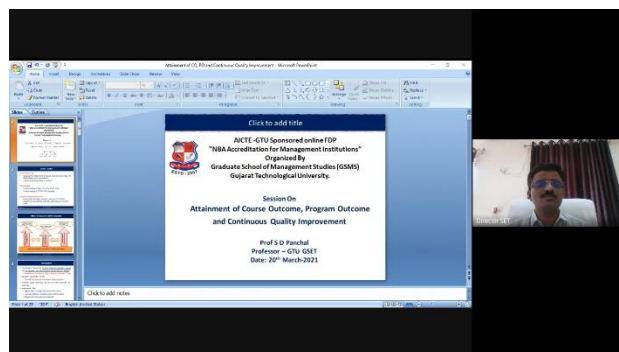

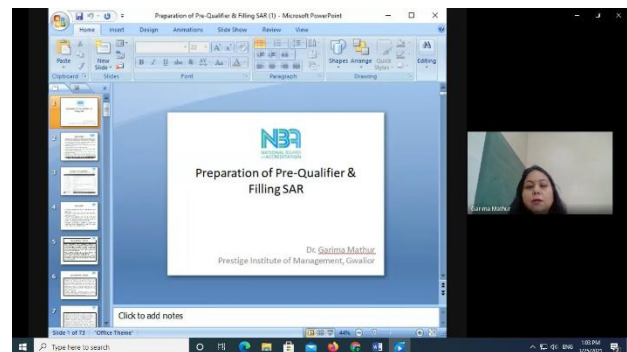

Dr. Parag Kalkar (Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management, Savitribai Phule Pune University) interacted with participants on Design of Outcome Based Curriculum in the pre-lunch session as well as the post-lunch session was delivered by Dr. Shailesh Kasande (CEO and Group Director, Suryadatta Group of Institutes, Pune) on Design of Outcome Based Question Paper and Attainment of CO & PO.

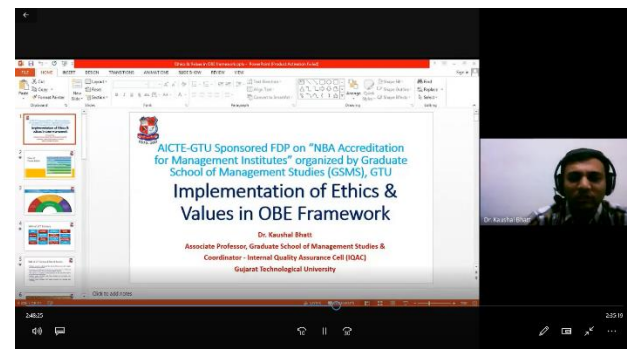

We had Prof. B. S. Pabla (Professor, National Institute of Technical Teachers Training & Research Institute, Chandigarh) as an expert on the 5th day who explained about Outcome Based NBA Accreditation and SAR in the first-half and in the second-half, Dr. Garima Mathur (Associate Professor, Prestige Institute of Management, Gwalior) gave a practical insight on Pre-qualifiers for NBA Accreditation and SAR.

The morning session on the final and the 6th day was delivered by Dr. S. D. Panchal (Director, Graduate School of Engineering & Technology & IQAC Head, GTU) on Attainment of CO, PO and Continuous Quality Improvement whereas the afternoon session on Implementation of Ethics and Values in Outcome Based Education Framework was conveyed by Dr. Kaushal Bhatt (Associate Professor & IQAC Coordinator, GTU).

An assessment test was conducted on the sixth day after completion of the last session to measure the learning outcomes of the participants and then followed the Valedictory Ceremony wherein Dr. Pankajray Patel (Director, GSMS-GTU) addressed all the participants with a major emphasis on motivating them to initiate with the NBA process being it the need of an hour. His further comments stressed upon advising participants to work hard on the documentation part as a pre-requisite for NBA Accreditation Process. Three participants also put forward their feedback in the ceremony. The ceremony ended with a Vote of Thanks by Dr. Shweta Bambuwala (Assistant Professor, GSMS-GTU & FDP Coordinator).

This FDP fulfilled its prime objectives to bring an awareness & importance of NBA Accreditation Process amongst faculties of management institutions affiliated to GTU and also provided a learning platform wherein management institutions shall be able to start working towards fulfilling the pre-requisites i.e. continuous quality improvement and outcome based education.

FDP Coordinators - Dr. Shweta Bambuwala (Assistant Professor, GSMS-GTU) and Dr. Radhika Gandhi Assistant Professor, GSMS & I/c Ph.D. Section, GTU) along with the entire team of GSMS-GTU received an overwhelming response for conducting this FDP. Overall, it served as the great learning experience for the participants which also made the entire event successful.