On September 5, 2023, the Graduate School of Management Studies celebrated Teachers' Day in honor of former Indian President Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan. In India, September 5th is celebrated as Teachers' Day in honor of the contributions teachers have given to society. A 5th September is the birthday of a great teacher Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, a staunch believer of education and a well-known diplomat, visionary, statesman, scholar, President of India and above all a perfect Teacher. All of the students decorated the entire institute and organized a function to celebrate Teachers' Day at GSMS.

SESSIONS CONDUCTED BY STUDENTS

The event started with six engaging sessions, with seniors taking the lead in junior classes, and juniors reciprocating to senior's class. These sessions, lasting around 20 minutes each, allowed students to share their knowledge and insights on subjects and generalized topics.

The sessions ran from 11 AM to 1:30 PM, followed by a break for lunch. Afterward, from 2:00 PM to 5:30 PM, students celebrated with great zeal, paying heartfelt tributes to their faculty members through speeches, songs, and videos.

CELEBRATION AT THE ACHARYA CHANAKYA HALL

The Teacher's Day celebration commenced with a symbolic lamp lighting ceremony by the esteemed professors of the day, "the Teacher's Day Participants." This ritual marked the event's enlightenment and knowledge-sharing spirit.

In the afternoon, an open-to-all event, centered on the theme of "Teacher's Day," unfolded. It featured a variety of activities, including video making, storytelling, poetry, elocution, skits, drama, and singing performances. This variety of activities provided a platform for students to showcase their talents and creativity. The participation exceeded expectations, with over 50 students actively taking part in events such as speech, dance, singing, video making, storytelling, and even students playing the role of professors. The dedication and enthusiasm of the participants were commendable.

During this time, students enthusiastically paid tribute to their faculty members through heartfelt speeches, soulful songs, and creative videos. Among these, the highlight was a captivating drama presented by GSMS students, depicting the life story of Eklavya and his relationship with Guru Dronacharya. This powerful portrayal added depth to the celebration, showcasing themes of dedication, mentorship, and loyalty.

At the event's conclusion, certificates were distributed to all participants who had showcased their talents and skills with enthusiasm. The Cultural Committee members and participants were applauded for their dedication and passion, ensuring the smooth execution of the entire event.

The Teacher's Day celebration at GSMS was not only a platform for students to showcase their skills but also a testament to the collaborative spirit and talent within the school community. The celebration ended with a cake cutting by faculty members. The day was really filled with creativity, learning, and heartfelt tributes, making it a truly memorable experience for everyone involved.
