4) Description of Event:

The Diwali festival was celebrated at the Graduate School of Management Studies (GSMS) on November 9th, 2023, which was a vibrant and joyous event that brought together students in a spirited celebration of the festival of lights. For the Diwali celebration, everyone gathered at Chanakya Hall, all dressed up in traditional clothes. It started with the Rangoli competition. Dr. Kshipra Chauhan and Dr. Neelam Nathani, assistant professors of School of Applied Science & Technology (SAST) judged the competitions.

Students prepared design on different themes like Women empowerment, Save Environment, and Indian Culture. Bansari Gohel from MBA (Sem-1) was announced a winner for her awesome Rangoli design. Simultaneously, other students participated in class Decoration Competition, and turned their classrooms into Diwali festive vibes. Smriti Upadhyay, Jaimini Desai, and Jay Kurel from BBA (Sem-3) decorated wonderfully with the theme "Let make everyone's Diwali joyful through helping needy people" and won the decoration competition.
