8) Feedback of the Event

Anti-Ragging Week was a successful initiative that not only raised awareness but also inspired active participation from students, teachers and staff. The events and activities held throughout the week contributed to creating a safer and more inclusive campus. By emphasizing the importance of respecting one another and fostering a sense of community, we are taking significant steps towards eradicating ragging from our institution. It is essential to contribute such efforts and maintain a year-round commitment to a ragging-free campus culture.
