Report on “Expert Session on Customs Act”

1. Title of Event: Customs Act
2. Type of Event: Expert Session
3. Date: 1st April, 2025
Time: 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM
Venue: Room No. 02
4. Description of the Event:

An Expert Session on Customs Act was organized under the subject of Direct and Indirect Taxation for the students of BBA Semester-6 with an objective to provide them with practical exposure and detailed knowledge about the Customs Act and its relevance in the Indian taxation system. The session focused on key aspects such as the structure of customs duty, procedures for import and export, types of duties, exemptions, and recent developments in customs laws. The expert explained the role of customs authorities and the importance of compliance with legal provisions related to international trade.

This interactive session helped students to understand the practical application of customs laws beyond their academic syllabus. It enhanced their knowledge regarding the real-world functioning of indirect taxation and import-export operations. The session also encouraged students to clear their doubts and gain clarity on various provisions of the Customs Act, preparing them for future roles in business, finance, and taxation-related careers.
