7) Feedback on the Event:

The session proved to be a valuable experience for students, especially those who were previously unaware of what NSS truly stands for. Learning about the real-world impact of NSS, its values, and the wide range of social initiatives helped students understand how they too can make a difference beyond academics. Mr. Vadhiya's insights made them realize that NSS is not just a certificate activity, but a meaningful way to develop leadership, empathy, and social responsibility.
