The participants showcased exceptional creativity in their anti-ragging posters. With powerful imagery and impactful messages, they highlighted the harmful consequences of ragging in a thought-provoking manner. This initiative not only brought awareness but also served as a meaningful platform for students to voice their concerns and ideas through art. It fostered a spirit of responsibility, empathy, and advocacy, reinforcing the collective commitment to a ragging-free campus.

List and number of participants: A total of 90 students of the 1st semester BBA, MBA(IB), MBA(IEV) and MBA(FINTECH).

8) Feedback of the event

Anti-Ragging Week proved to be a highly successful initiative that not only raised awareness but also encouraged active participation from students, teachers, and staff alike. The various events and activities conducted throughout the week played a vital role in promoting a safer, more inclusive, and respectful campus environment. By emphasizing the values of mutual respect and community spirit, the initiative marked an important step towards eradicating ragging from our institution. Such collective efforts are essential and must be continued to ensure a sustained, year-round commitment to fostering a ragging-free campus culture.
