On the first day for the inauguration, everyone gathered at cricket ground, all wearing GSMS t-shirt. Respected registrar sir Dr. K.N.Kher welcomed the gathering, which was later followed by wonderful speech of Dr. Kaushal Bhatt which motivated the students. Then respected registrar sir Dr. K.N.Kher tossed the coin to start the very first game of AAROHAN-2024 which was Kho- Kho.

The sports day kicked off with an energetic game of kho-kho, simultaneously a thrilling kabbadi match unfolded on the field. While outdoor games were in full swing, indoor participants engaged in battles of Carrom, Chess and Table Tennis. After the initial rounds of games, there was a refreshment break. The final rounds were held after the break and had our winners. Later on, there was a friendly match of football. The day ended with a joyful cricket match of girls.

The second day was started at 8 am with an enthusiastic game of relay race. Following the relay race, intense match of tug of war began, where participants showcased their team strength and strategy with their every pull. At the same time, the breath-taking boys' cricket match was held which kept the audience on the edge of their seats. At 1 pm everyone gathered to have lunch. The day continued with a cutthroat match of volleyball. The winning team of cricket played against alumni of GSMS.
