Description of the Event:

- The Culture Committee of GSMS proudly hosted the 3rd edition of AARADHYA 2025 – the Alumni Garba Eve, an evening filled with tradition, rhythm, and reunion. The main purpose of the event was to bring together alumni, students, and faculty to enjoy a cultural evening and strengthen their bond. With energetic dance, nostalgic conversations, and cultural pride, the event created a warm and lively atmosphere.

Key Highlights of the Event:

- Auspicious Start with Aarti:

The evening commenced with a soulful Aarti dedicated to Maa Amba, inviting divine blessings for peace, prosperity, and unity.

- Vibrant Traditional Attire:

The campus was transformed into a colourful cultural space, with participants dressed in traditional. The attire added vibrancy to the evening and beautifully showcased the cultural richness of Gujarat.

- Garba Performances:

The highlight of the night was the energetic Garba and Dandiya performances. With music setting the rhythm, participants danced creating an atmosphere full of joy, energy, and festive spirit.

- Engaging Competitions:

To encourage active participation and enhance the festive mood, various competitions were conducted, including best garba performer and best traditional attire. Both alumni and students enthusiastically took part, showcasing their talent and cultural flair.

Number of Participants:

The event saw an impressive turnout of more than 250+ participants, comprising alumni from various graduating years, current MBA and BBA students, faculty, and staff members.
