Report on Sabarmati River Cleaning Drive (Safai Abhiyan)

1) Title of Event: Sabarmati River Cleaning Drive (Safai Abhiyan)

2) Type of Event: Environmental Cleanliness Drive / Community Service Activity

3) Date, Time and Venue of the Event:

Date: 08 May 2026
Time: 07:00 AM to 09:00 AM
Venue: Sabarmati Riverfront, Ahmedabad

4) Description of Event:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers of GTU School of Management Studies actively participated in the Sabarmati River Cleaning Drive (Safai Abhiyan) organized by the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation (AMC) under its environmental sustainability and community service initiative.

The primary objective of the programme was to promote environmental awareness, encourage public participation in maintaining cleanliness, and conserve the Sabarmati River ecosystem. The cleanliness drive inspired volunteers to understand the importance of waste management, environmental protection, and civic responsibility.

The NSS volunteers assembled at the designated location in the morning and reported to the AMC officials. After receiving instructions regarding safety measures and waste collection procedures, the volunteers were divided into groups and assigned different cleaning zones along the Sabarmati Riverfront.

During the drive, the volunteers collected plastic waste, bottles, wrappers, paper, and other litter from the riverfront area. The activity was carried out with great enthusiasm, teamwork, and discipline. The volunteers actively contributed towards creating a cleaner and healthier environment while spreading awareness about the importance of cleanliness among the public.

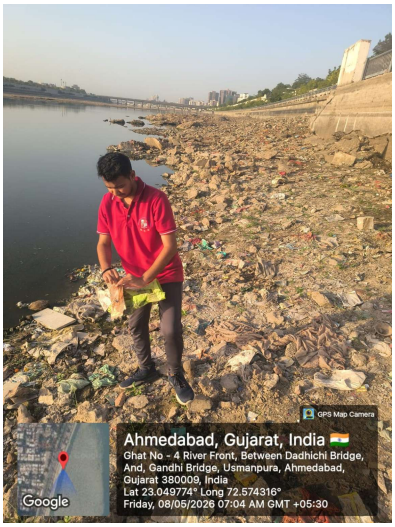

The programme concluded with a group photograph and appreciation from the coordinators for the active participation of the NSS volunteers. The event successfully strengthened the volunteers' sense of social responsibility and commitment towards environmental conservation.
